BORIS THE SPIDER

A Journal of Duplicitous Doings, Raw

When first we practice to deceive."

'Achilleus', 'Shamesh' & MAGIC REALM End!!

Congratulations go out to Paul Zieske for his commanding victory in HISTORY OF THE WORLD and to Dave Anderson on his near miss in MAGIC REALM. 'Shamesh', our bid HOTW e-mail game that started simultaneously with 'Achilleus', finally ended in a fine Orange victory for Ewan McNay.

With so many games ending there are starting to be gaping White Spaces throughout the issue. Two games of AGE OF RENAISSANCE start this time and two games of STELLAR CONQUEST. It's time to get 'Boris XII' started; we have four but need three more. MAGIC REALM and BRITANNIA are closest to fulling, needing one each. I'd rather run the latter by e-mail as that works better with the alternating play of nations. If interested in playing anything else listed on p18, holler. The map for the next MAGIC REALM appears on p11.

THE HUNT returns on p 15. Check it out.

STANDBY ALERT: We have possible openings for the following positions:

BALKAN WARS: Greece

'Boris XI': Russia

Interested parties should send in orders for each position they are interested in. If the present player again fails to submit orders on time, a random drawing will be held.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: "In my view, the most important implication of the breast-implant story is its reflection of what appears to be a widespread distrust and misunderstanding of science in American society. In the long run, this feeling will cause more damage than any other aspect of the controversy. Several jurors who participated in implant decisions, as well as the head of a powerful advocacy group, have publicly said that the results of scientific studies did not matter to them. In their view, medical research was irrelevant. All that mattered was what they believed; never mind why they believed it."

--- Marcia Angeli, M.D.

Karen and Paul Zieske are happy to announce the arrival of John Paul Zieske on Oct. 10th, weighing in at 7 lbs 12 oz. Everyone, including big sister Petrina, are fine.

Pete Gaughan is planning on making a pubbing comeback with a (small) zine that is not obsessed with games. If interested contact him at 1236 Detroit Ave #7, Concord, CA 94520-3651 (gaughan@ix.netcom.com).

BOOS & KUDOS

This month's Madame Boldue Press Excellence Award (and free issue) goes to "President-forLife" Hanna in 1830.

This month's Ms Nar Super-Sudsy Bomb is lobbed jointly at Dan Gorham and Brad Wilson for NMRs.

England Out! France Begins Fade!

Fall 1910

1996a

MINAS MORGUL: The last act of British defiance was to scuttle their fleet and swim ashore to internment in neutral Ireland rather than be absorbed into the Kriegsmarine. The Turkish and German war machines grind inexorably onward. Oddsmakers cede MOS, SPA, and POR to the Turks and STP, WAR, and PAR to the Kaiser, with MAR and VIE the decisive centers. The Russian raider in BAL threatens four German centers and thus aids Turkey's chances.

ERRATA: Austrian [A Bul S A Ser], [A Ser S A Bul] and Russian [A Mos-war] and [F Bla-Bul(ac)] all failed. I HATE late orders--less chance to proofread.

MIRKWOOD: Vodka riots have immobilized the Russian military and deprived it of a signal opportunity to reclaim WAR (or defend STP) and to capture BUL from the hapless Austrians. King David thus becomes the dominant Power in Europe after his double cross of French A WAL. Germany's loss of two home centers doesn't bode well for Kaiser Seth. Austria's complete dismemberment should be swiftly executed by the Italians and Turks.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Berlin Spectator - Interviews with Reich Officials at the State Department have not been successful in discerning a coherent International Policy. Perfidious Albion has been unreliable. The French seem intent on autistically battering themselves against the Rhine. Italy seems to have Mediterranean ambitions. Austria is not in a position to have ambitions. Turkey seems confused. And Russia seems to want a world tour. What's gone on here?

Be more aware of your proximity to the corners. You should also submit orders for Won Hung Lo. One set will be randomly chosen and used.

PRESS:

Antioch Epiphany: Recent scientific studies of the Al-Ghul clan have discovered that their clan lacks the proper moral judgement to be safe members of society and are given to random acts of madness. To control these random acts the healers have developed a new technique which results in a calm and predictable demeanor. All members of the clan should have long nails inserted into their heads through their eye sockets and the nail should then be moved back and forth and up and down to sever the offending connections in their deviant minds. This procedure should be carried out as soon as possible for the good of our society. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of members of the Al-Ghul clan should inform the healers immediately.

Set-Up

GM - Mark Frueh

Capitol Choice Phase

Bids for Capitol choice are:

Alan - $5	Debbie - $0	Pitt - $1
Rick - $0	Paul - $0	Phil - $1

Alan gets his first choice, die roll between Phil & Pitt - Phil "1" and Pitt "6" (Pitt is 2nd), roll off between Debbie, Paul & Rick - Debbie "5", Rick "4" and Paul "1" - thus the capitol selection order is Alan, Pitt, Phil, Debbie, Rick and Paul.

Alan selects VENICE, Pitt selects BARCELONA, Phil nsbs PARIS, Debbie takes GENOA, Rick takes HAMBURG and Paul is left with LONDON.

Remaining treasury is:

Venice - $35, Barcelona - $39, Paris - $39, Genoa - $40, Hamburg - $40 and London - $40. Your second card is provided to all in order to speed the game. Orders due next are token allocation (to determine turn order) and card plays. Conditional orders are highly encouraged. IMPORTANT: Orders are due to Mark by 3 Dec.

Rick asks some good questions:

"Is this a Gunboat style game or are we allowed to negotiate secretly with the other players? (Regarding rule #10)"

My inclination is to allow Diplomacy both public and secret between players, but I will take the easy way out and let Paul Bolduc make the decision. (Short of playing "gunboat", it can't be stopped, so it's allowed.)

"How will you handle the removal of shortage/surplus in the draw card phase?"

Once the second part of the turn adjudication is completed, you will be provided your new card and Urban Ascendancy card (if purchased) in advance. Then with your next set of orders, you may prepare conditionals to remove the shortage/surplus if you get to go first.

"Situation - Paris has a 4-galley and the Heavens advance. Can a galley sail from St. Malo thru Biscay to Lisbon - then Seville and then into West Africa - or - would that galley need to stay in coastal waters until it got to Seville and THEN use it's Heaven advance to sail into West Africa?"

My understanding is that the Heavens advance is only good for one open water traverse ... thus the 4-galley is prevented from using two open seas (Biscay and Canary Basin) to reach West Africa from St. Malo. My ruling is the second option of the situation.

Loud voice overheard outside the Penn Central executive offices:

"You bought WHAT?...Couldn't you have STOPPED buying them?...Well, at least they were cheap, right?...Come on, that's way over the trading price...I don't care of it's not your money; it's MY money!...I guess we're stuck with it. Show me their balance sheet...Couldn't you have found something else to wrap your lunch in?...Stations?...But there's no CITY out there! What else?... We already HAVE a station in New York...No, that was Caruthers' idea... You remember Caruthers: fat bald guy with the perpetual grin?...They tell me he's very happy in the home...How about trains?...That's ALL? Those things have been obsolete for years!...Yes, I know we run one, but that's just a weekend nostalgia trip from the B&O museum up to Trenton and back. You can't run a railroad that way...Yes, we will find out, I'm afraid... Well, at least there seems to be some cash in the treasury...What do you mean, 'not for long'?...When you stop that hysterical laughter, go clean out your desk...And explain this steamer ticket to Rio I found in your office."

THE HUNT

Tallyho!

THE HUNT is a word game inspired by James Lipton's book, "An Exaltation of Larks", where we propose a noun and the players are asked to propose a collective noun to fit, such as "flock" for "sheep" or "pride" for "lions". Boris and Ms Nar will rank each entry for each word and the best score will be the winner. Each word is a possible 1 point, but the point will be split if either more than one player suggests the word or two or more words are ranked equally. The first player to score 10 points wins six free issues of this rag. THE HUNT is run in Chases or rounds. We begin the first Chase of the 4th Hunt. Gentlefolk, to the Hunt!

Map Does St. Gals support Nurnburg?

A. No, play it as the board appears.

Map What is the extent of the Bay of Biscay "sea"?

A. It touches the coastal waters from Lisbon to Seville.

Map Does Paris connect to London and Portsmouth? Does Bari connect to Corfu?

A. Yes to all, across coastal waters.

Map Do Barca's coastal waters connect to the E. Med. Sea? Do Libya's connect to the C.Med. Sea?

A. Yes, No.

Map Does the Norwegian Sea have any significance for play?

A. No, you can only cross one sea with The Heavens and the areas that are adjacent to the Norwegian Sea are also accessible by coastal water.

Map & 4.1 Are Iceland and West Africa only accessible by sea?

A. Yes, requiring The Heavens or Sea-worthy Vessels.

2.2 & 5 In using Caravan to go from Venice to Belgrade via Dubrovnik, must I compete with a player in Dubrovnik?

A. Only if Dubrovnik is fully occupied at the time of transit, in which case you must place enough tokens to initiate competition in Dubrovnik and only if successful may you pass through with more tokens to go to Belgrade.

4.1 Can the Pirate/Viking card reduce destination markets in the Far East and New World boxes?

A. Yes.

?? QUESTION BOX ?? AGE OF RENAISSANCE

4.4 Are tokens in their capital doubled for both defense and attack?

A. Yes.

9.32 If all expansion tokens have been purchased (none remain in stock) when a player loses a destination market to a disaster (such as Rebellion), may the player replace the marker with a square token from his expansion pool? Must he?

A. Yes, the player may—at his option—use expansion tokens in such cases. Alternatively, you may leave the space empty if you have none in stock.

9.33 How does Chaos affect the order of play?

A. Players in chains are assumed to be buying into expansion tokens and play order is determined in the usual fashion.

9.35 Can a player who owns Pinned Word and Passage claim a rebate by purchasing a personality?

A. No.

9.53 If Black has colored squares in an unfilled province, co-existing with recently-arrived Red tokens, are all of them removed in a competition initiated by white-side-up Blue tokens?

A. Yes, the loser of any competition loses all tokens in the province.

9.55 If I connect with another player and then use competition to gain control, may I use Word/Watermill to force a trade?

A. No, you must take the province "from another player"—meaning that player must control it completely first.

9.53 If one of several defenders in a province has a military advantage but others do not, is the attacker required to place the additional token to counter the military advantage?

A. Yes.

9.53 When does the conversion between square tokens to circular tokens occur?

A. Immediately in each competition roll is conducted.

9.61 Does a commodity shortage die roll of 12 collecting Gold and Ivory cause card draws or payments for both commodities? In order to remove a Gold/Ivory shortage, what is paid?

A. Yes, in shortage, two cards could be drawn. Only $10 is paid to remove the joint shortage.

9.7 May you later collect expansion tokens if they were not at first available at the time of allocation (example, after Black Death places more in stock)?

A. No, you only get what is available at the time of allocation between cash and tokens.

10 Can players pay cash to other players for the play, draw or non-draw of cards, or performance of other "services"?

A. Players may plead, protest and whine, but the actual payment of bribes for services rendered is strictly forbidden. You may promise a service, but never draw a card without incurring the penalty in the rules.

11.1 If someone has bought all 26 Advances, is the final turn played out fully, including a final card play phase?

A. Yes.

11.1 Do you make new Shortage/Surplus rolls for applications to the final card play phase?

A. Yes.

11.2 Can a card be discarded (with Master of Art) instead of played during the final card play phase?

A. No.

11.2 Is the final card play phase considered to be a different turn? Does Enlightened Ruler played during the final turn's play card phase still protect a player during the final card play phase?

A. No, Yes.

11.2 When do re-rolls occur in the case of a tie with the War card?

A. At the start of each player's portion of the Play Card phase (possibly continuing to the next turn's phase). If a War continues past the last player during the Final Card Play phase, the game ends without further die rolls for the War.
